

2007 North American Pesticide Applicator
Certification and Safety Education Workshop
August 20-23, 2007
Portland, Maine

Come network with colleagues from the United States, Canada, Mexico and Latin America. Learn about proposals for global/US harmonization of certification and training (C&T), current needs/trends/successes of the C&T program and its clientele, and take home some new tools/techniques to assist you in your certification and training programs.

The University of Maine Cooperative Extension and the Maine Board of Pesticide Control, in cooperation with the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture Foundation, are hosting the 2007 North American Pesticide Applicator Certification and Safety Education Workshop. State Lead Agency C&T staff, Cooperative Extension PSEP educators, Regional and National USEPA pesticide program staff and other professionals interested in pesticide C&T are strongly encouraged to attend. The program will be held August 20-23, 2007 at the Holiday Inn By the Bay (<http://www.innbythebay.com/>).

For additional details and to preview the draft agenda, please visit the 2007 Workshop website: <http://pmo.umext.maine.edu/ct/index.htm>. New information is being added frequently!

EPA-supported travel

The National Association of State Departments of Agriculture Foundation (NASDAF), through a cooperative agreement with EPA, will pay for the airfare to attend the workshop for approved state designees for: 1) one Extension PSEP coordinator, 2) one State Lead Agency C&T manager, and where applicable 3) one State Lead Structural C&T manager. For the full NASDAF/EPA-supported travel policy, visit http://pmo.umext.maine.edu/ct/PDF/SLA_Travel_Policy.pdf

Please submit your request for approval as the state designee by April 30, 2007.
